Navigating Legal Avenues in Viksit Bharat: Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

On December 25, 2023, Ms. Vaishali Kikan, a distinguished Junior Research Fellow in the Electronics and Communication Engineering (ECE) Department at Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women (IGDTUW), spearheaded an enlightening event titled "Navigating Legal Avenues in Viksit Bharat: Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)." This workshop served as a pivotal platform for participants to delve deep into the complexities of Intellectual Property Rights, crucial for fostering innovation and technological advancement within the context of Viksit Bharat.

Ms. Kikan's initiative aimed not only to educate but also to inspire a proactive culture of innovation and knowledge protection among attendees. Through interactive discussions and insightful presentations, participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the legal intricacies surrounding intellectual property. From patents to copyrights and trademarks, the workshop equipped individuals with the tools and knowledge needed to safeguard their creative and innovative endeavors in Viksit Bharat. Empowered with newfound insights, participants departed the event poised to navigate the legal landscape of intellectual property with confidence and clarity. Their enhanced understanding not only contributes to their individual growth but also fuels the overall advancement of India's technological landscape, positioning Viksit Bharat@2047 as a hub for innovation, creativity, and sustainable development.
