

AWAREENESS FOR VIKSIT BHARAT@2047: VOICE OF YOUTH

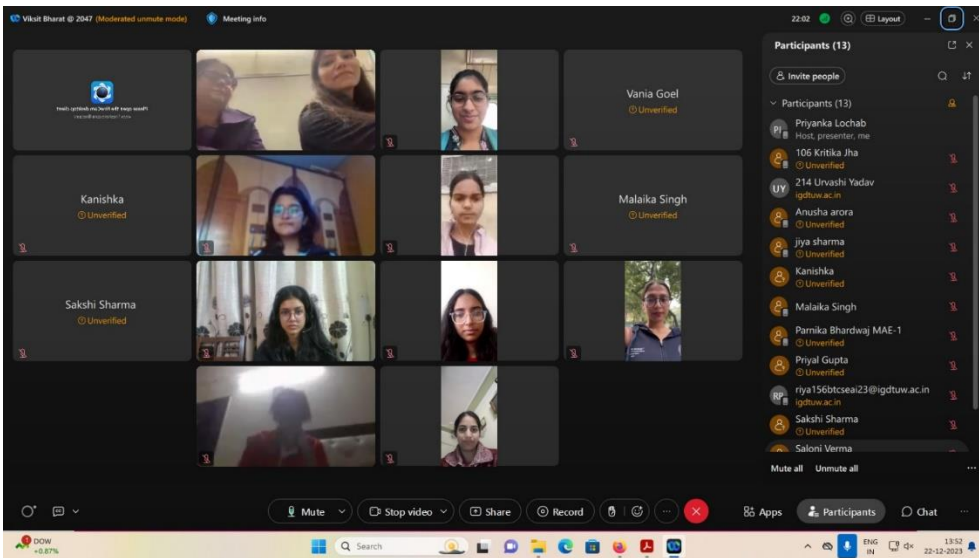

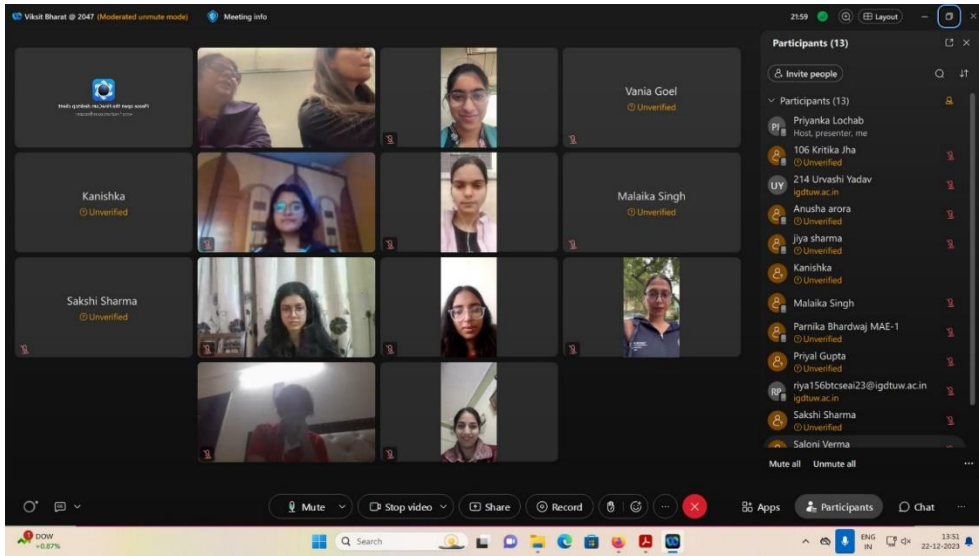

In response to the urgent directives outlined in the recent departmental meeting, an initiative aimed at fostering awareness for Viksit Bharat@2047 was successfully executed. Dr. Bhavya, Assistant Professor of English and Communication Studies, took the lead in launching the Viksit Bharat Discussion Club within the ASH department. The primary objective was to inform and engage students in the ViksitBharat@2047 initiative and encourage them to contribute their ideas for the betterment of our nation.

Key Actions Taken:

- Online Meeting: Conducted a virtual meeting to introduce ViksitBharat@2047, stressing its significance and the need for student engagement.
- My Gov Portal Registration: Instructed students to register on the My Gov Portal, creating login IDs to actively participate in the initiative.
- Idea Submission: Students submitted their innovative ideas for Viksit Bharat and outlined implementation steps.
- CRs' Data Management: CRs maintained a transparent Google Sheet, listing participating and non-participating students for efficient data management.
- Participation Verification: Students submitted screenshots of participation emails, confirming their active involvement.
- Data Upload to Google Drive: CRs uploaded participation data and screenshots to the designated Google Drive for centralized storage.
- Expansion to Ideation Club: The ASH department initiated the ViksitBharat@2047 Ideation Club, starting with plans for the first Group Discussion (GD).

The CRs have to click pictures of the online meeting. These pictures also need to be uploaded on the drive.
